Last Week's Program: STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Richard L Sanders School:

Damien Barnhart is a 4th grader who has worked diligently in school and enjoys math. Damien demonstrates leadership qualities and is kind and encouraging to his peers. He enjoys fishing with his grandfather and skeet shooting with his father, playing football, video games and reading books. He plans to graduate from college. Mateo Blanco, an 8th grader, was chosen unanimously by all of the Middle School Teachers. Mateo loves to talk, is respectful and has excellent communication skills. Mateo's favorite subject in school is Science.

He is also a skilled artist who draws priceless works of art for the teachers and school staff. He also loves Country Music and Tim McGraw. He and his cousin like to explore St Pete's cultural, historic and park areas around town. Lamontez Lavine, a 9th grader, is a model High School Student. He is courteous and respectful of others. His favorite subject is Math as there is always a definite right or wrong answer. He believes all of his teachers are outstanding. He has made a 180 degree turnaround in his behavior and his academics. After graduating from UF, Lamontez hopes to play for the NFL. Currently a full back and a middle linebacker, he takes the quarterback down without mercy. He loves and thanks his Mom for giving him the support he needs.

Dixie Hollins High School:

Daniel LaVine and Nicolas Parisoff were chosen as September's Students of the Month as they are currently ranked 1st & 2nd in their Senior Class. Daniel was awarded the Academic Achievement Award, named the Best Geometry Student his freshman year, the World History Certificate his sophomore year and the Distinguished Cadet Award in Jr ROTC both Sophomore and Junior year. He has been an Offensive Guard on the Dixie Football team for three years. Through the National Honor Society, he has participated in Beach Cleanups, Walk for Diabetes, helped organize the Tri-City marathons and provided tutoring to Dixie's underclassmen. He is also the Editor of the Yearbook. Daniel has worked for Winn Dixie for 3 years while keeping his 4.5WGPA. Nick is enrolled in the Graphic Arts Academy at Dixie. He has been awarded the following: Best Biology 9th Grade Student, Best Chemistry Student in 10 & 11th Grade, the Best Drama Reading in English II Honors, and best Male Designer all three years for Digital Design. He is currently on the Baseball and Bowling teams. As a member of National Honor Society, Nick has helped out at Relay for Life, Angie Home for the Elderly and the Elks Lodge. He plans to attend UF in Gainesville, majoring in Computer Engineering.

Pinellas Park High School:

Vivian Nguyen and Alem Avdic are PPHS's Students of the Month for September. Vivian is actively involved on campus with the Math Honor Society, Science Honor Society, National Honor Society, Key Club, AVID Program and Future Educators of America. She has served as VP of the Executive Board, Secretary of the Key Club, Historian for NHS, & Parliamentarian for Math Honor Society. She enjoys volunteering at the Largo Library and Suncoast Boys & Girls Club, reading book, taking pictures and listening to music. With a 3.7 GPA, Vivian plans to attend UCF or UF and is interested in being a nurse in a hospital or working in the medical field.

Special Olympics This Saturday!

Special Olympics bowling Chairman, Joe Minarik, reports that volunteers are needed for this Saturday's bowling event at Seminole Lanes.

Rotarians should meet in the lounge at the center by 10:30am.

There will be over 750 participants & volunteer staff to feed. We will start serving the 2nd shift bowlers at 11:00am and then serve the first shift bowlers after they finish their event, approximately 12:30pm. We need lots of help! See Joe Minarik if you are able to help.

Next Week's Program:

Program Chairman Kenny Krauss will introduce Angel Bosco. She has a BA in education, a BA in psychology, a MA in Mental Health Counseling and a MA in Marriage and Family Therapy. She will make a presentation on "Community Mental Health Trends".

This Week's Program:

Rotary Foundation Grant Info!

Mike Chapman has been a member of the Rotary Club of Dunedin North since he became a Rotarian in 1992. He served as his club's President during Rotary Year 1999-2000 and as his club's Rotary Foundation Chair for a total of five years. Mike is a "multiple" Paul Harris Fellow and his wife, Jocelyn, who is president of the Rotary Club of Clearwater this year are both members of the Paul Harris Society for the Annual Fund as well as the Bequest Society for the Rotary Foundation Endowment. Jocelyn's sons, Ted and Rick, are also Paul Harris Fellows. In his professional life, Mike is a Certified Financial Planner and Financial Advisor with Raymond James and Associates.

Pinellas Park High School (continued):

Alem Avdic was born in Germany and is proud of his Croatian heritage. He is involved with NHS and the Executive Internship Program. With his 3.83 GPA, he has been on the Dean's List and Honor Roll, received the President's Education Award, Academic Achievement Award and NHS Attendance Award. He serves the community as a volunteer at Seminole Gardens Group where he has developed leadership qualities and counseling experience. Alem enjoys listening to music and reading neurology articles. He is fascinated by the complexity and diversity of brains. He plans to work in Neurosurgery where he hopes to help find cures for Alzheimers, Dementia, Chronic Seizures, ALD and fibromyalgia.

Happy Events:

Josh Astarita's H/E was going fishing for Grouper and Snapper. He got out of the water when he saw the Bull Shark - but no mermaids! Joe Minarik paid a $1 for John Donaghy leaving early, since Tom would fine him anyway. Don Higgins H/E was having Bill & Sue Slo-bodkin, who have 31 years of perfect attendance, visiting our club today. Josh Astarita was also happy for the turnout at the Ronald McDonald House this past Saturday. Tom Stewart's H/E was telling everyone what a good time they had at Ronald McDonald House. Theresa Pinnix was glad to have the Students of the Month and their family members at the meeting. George Carter is going up to visit the grandkids again in GA next week. Phyllis Tellor was extremely thankful for the Colossally Great Birthday Party the club had for her last week - Best party she has had in over 40 years! Jerry Krauss' guest, Janet Waddell was glad to be able to come back and visit the group at Rotary while Jerry and Tami were gone. Last week's secret greeter was Joe Minarik. Joe also announced that he will be holding the Paul Harris Lottery next week if anyone else wanted to participate.

Rotarian Birthdays:

Joe Kolodziej.....9/17.....74yrs
Christine Patel.....9/25.....50yrs
Jimmy Hammond.....9/30.....83yrs

50/50 Winner: Josh Astarita won the 50/50 drawing for $5 and donated it back to the club !!!! The Card to Draw is the Ace of Hearts for $86.
