Last Week's Program: Program Chairperson David Sideri had a different speaker presentation. He hosted a Trivial Pursuit Contest last week.....

Some Trivial Pursuit Trivia

The Game was created in Dec 1979 and released in 1982. Its popularity peaked in 1984 with 20 million games sold that year.

In 1993, Trivial Pursuit was named to the "Games Hall of Fame"

In 2003, an on-line version of the game was launched.

By 2004, nearly 88 million games had been sold in 26 countries & 17 languages.

In 2008, Hasbro bought the rights to the game for $80 million.

David asked questions from the game. The table that got the most correct answers then competed among themselves to win a Tampa Bay Bucs rolling cooler. The table that won was comprised of Dr. Nanda, Tami Scheele, Phil England and Jonathon Brewer. They had a run-off and the grand winner was Phil England. He now is the Poker Champion of our club and the Trivia Champion. Harry Alchin stated that he wishes to challenge him in bowling! It was the most fun we have had in a long time for a regular program.

HOWEVER, NOTHING CAN TOP DR. PAL NANDA'S 90TH BIRTHDAY!!!

Rotary Camp Florida is totally redoing their playground.

They need volunteers to assemble playground parts on Thursday Sept 24th.

Happy Events:

Harry Alchin: Paid an unhappy $20.00 for missing the roadside clean up last Saturday. He tried to help, but he went to the wrong location and could not find the cleanup crew.

Tom Stewart: He told the truth! He paid $20.00 since he played golf last Saturday instead of doing the roadside cleanup.

Tami Scheele: Happy about the Rotary Days Ray's game last Sunday and the Roadside cleanup.

Janet Waddell: Happy for her 45th anniversary that was celebrated with the Roadside cleanup, dinner and a movie on Saturday and the Rays game on Sunday. It was a great weekend!

Yvonne Fay: Happy $5.00 for spending time with her son on the river this weekend and at the Rays game on Sunday.

Jerry Wennlund: Happy that Hurricane Erika fizzled and missed us.

Phil England: Happy that the roadside cleanup had a good turnout and that all had a good time.

Bob Dobson: Happy $5.00 for a successful sales week at work.

Joe Minarik: Happy that John Donaghy's surgery at Moffitt went well.

Jerry Krauss: Happy that the prestigious Garcia and Ortiz Senior Scratch Invitational League at Seminole Lanes had a good first week and the team of Ashcraft, Breske & Alchin did well. Bill Ashcraft rolled an almost perfect 299 and 724 series, Richard Breske had a 288 and Harry Alchin their anchor rolled a 245!

David Sideri: Is happy that these guys have too much time for bowling!

Kevin Krauss: Happy that Harry Alchin is joining his team on the Wednesday Night High Average Men's bowling league.

50/50 Winner: Our drawing was won last week by Rotarian Paul Scheele who graciously donated the $9 back to the club. To win the $62 Grand Jackpot, the Card to draw is the Ace of Spades.
