This Week's Program:

Last Week's Program:

Jerry Wennlund introduced Joshua Estremera. Josh is the Family & Community Liaison, Offensive Line Football Coach and 5000 Role Models Coordinator for Dixie Hollins High School. The 5000 Role Models program was started by Congresswoman Frederica S. Wilson in Miami-Dade area when she noticed a pattern of young minority boys either being incarcerated, entering the drug trade or dropping out of school. She challenged the men of Miami-Dade County to intervene in the lives of “at-risk” youth. In March 1993, the 500 African American Male Role Models of Excellence was born. In 1994, the name was changed to the 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project. Adult Role Model men are trained to salvage “at-risk” youth of all nationalities and races, who are considered candidates for society’s endangered species list. Young males, ages 9-19, are paired with successful professional adult volunteers who provide advice, guidance and educational assistance. Joshua brought Coleman Bryant, Secretary; Marcos Nieves, Community Representative; and Kane Choppolla, member. Both Marcus and Kane had helped a few weeks ago with the Pavers’ project at Skyview Elementary. Any interested adults are encouraged to contact Joshua about becoming a mentor in this program.
